DECISION ON ATTORNEYS' FEES AND COSTS¹

Dorsey, Chief Special Master:

On July 2, 2015, petitioner filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, et seq.,² (the "Vaccine Act"). Petitioner alleged that an influenza ("flu") vaccine he received on October 10, 2014, caused him to develop Guillain-Barré Syndrome ("GBS"). On February 2, 2016, the undersigned issued a decision awarding compensation to petitioner based on the parties' joint stipulation. (ECF No. 21).

On April 29, 2016, petitioner filed a motion for attorneys' fees and costs. (ECF No. 25). Petitioner requests attorneys' fees in the amount of $20,040.00 and attorneys' costs in the amount of $4,323.99 for a total amount of $24,363.99. Id. at 2. In accordance with General Order #9, petitioner's counsel represents that petitioner incurred no out-of-pocket expenses.

On May 13, 2016, respondent filed a response to petitioner's motion. (ECF No. 27). Respondent argues that "[n]either the Vaccine Act nor Vaccine Rule 13 contemplates any role for respondent in the resolution of a request by a petitioner for an award of attorneys' fees and costs." Id. at 1. Respondent adds, however, that she "is satisfied the statutory requirements for an award of attorneys' fees and costs are met in this case." Id. at 2. Additionally, she "asserts that a reasonable amount for fees and costs in the present case would fall between $18,000.00 to $21,000.00," citing a number of "similarly-postured" GBS cases where the stipulated fees and costs fell within the given range. Id. at 3-4.

On May 16, 2016, petitioner filed a reply. (ECF No. 28). Petitioner argues that respondent "fail[ed] to specifically identify any deficiencies, unreasonableness, or billing issues" and instead provided only "a self-serving 'survey' of what the respondent believes the range for fees and costs in this case should be." Id. at 1. Additionally, the cited cases "are not accurately representative of this Petitioner's counsel's similarly-postured GBS cases," as none of them "were from Anapol Wiess." Id. at 4 (emphasis in original). Petitioner then provides a list of the attorneys' fees and costs awarded petitioner's counsel in "settled influenza/GBS cases since 2014."³

The undersigned has reviewed the billing records submitted with petitioner's request. In the undersigned's experience, the request appears reasonable, and the undersigned finds no cause to reduce the requested hours or rates.

Petitioner requests additional attorneys' fees in the amount of $962.50 for preparing the reply. Id. at 5 n.1; 7 n.2. However, because petitioner's counsel has filed a near-identical reply in other SPU cases, the undersigned does not find the number of hours requested for the preparation of the reply brief to be reasonable in this case. The undersigned reduces the requested hours to two hours and awards $550.00 for the preparation of petitioner's reply brief. Thus, the total amount awarded for attorneys' fees and costs is $24,913.99.

The Vaccine Act permits an award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs. § 15(e). Based on the reasonableness of petitioner's request, the undersigned GRANTS petitioner's motion for attorneys' fees and costs.

Accordingly, the undersigned awards the total of $24,913.99⁴ as a lump sum in the form of a check jointly payable to petitioner and petitioner's counsel Lawrence R. Cohan.

The clerk of the court shall enter judgment in accordance herewith.⁵

IT IS SO ORDERED.

⁴ This amount is intended to cover all legal expenses incurred in this matter. This award encompasses all charges by the attorney against a client, "advanced costs" as well as fees for legal services rendered. Furthermore, § 15(e)(3) prevents an attorney from charging or collecting fees (including costs) that would be in addition to the amount awarded herein. See generally Beck v. Sec'y of Health & Human Servs., 924 F.2d 1029 (Fed. Cir.1991).

⁵ Pursuant to Vaccine Rule 11(a), entry of judgment can be expedited by the parties' joint filing of notice renouncing the right to seek review.
